

SKETCH THROUGH TIME

THIS PORTRAIT IS GROUNDBREAKING BECAUSE ITS WAS TAKEN DURING THE
GREAT DEPRESSION. HER
PORTRAITS DID NOT ONLY
COMMUNICATE THE IDENTITY
OF A SINGLE PERSON, BUT OF
AN ENTIRE NATION. SHE INDEED HUMANIZED THE GREAT DEPRESSION AND IT'S TRAGIC CONSEQUENCES

<http://img.photographycourse.net/wp-content/uploads/2009/07/Picture-10.png>

THIS IS GROUNDBREAKING IN ART HISTORY BECAUSE
THIS IS A FAMOUS PAINTING
OF JOAN OF ARC. ALSO IT WAS ONE OF THE WORLD'S FIRST "AVANT-GARDE" USING OIL PASTEL CARVED IN MARBLE.

<http://blog.corbis.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/12/IX004123.jpg>

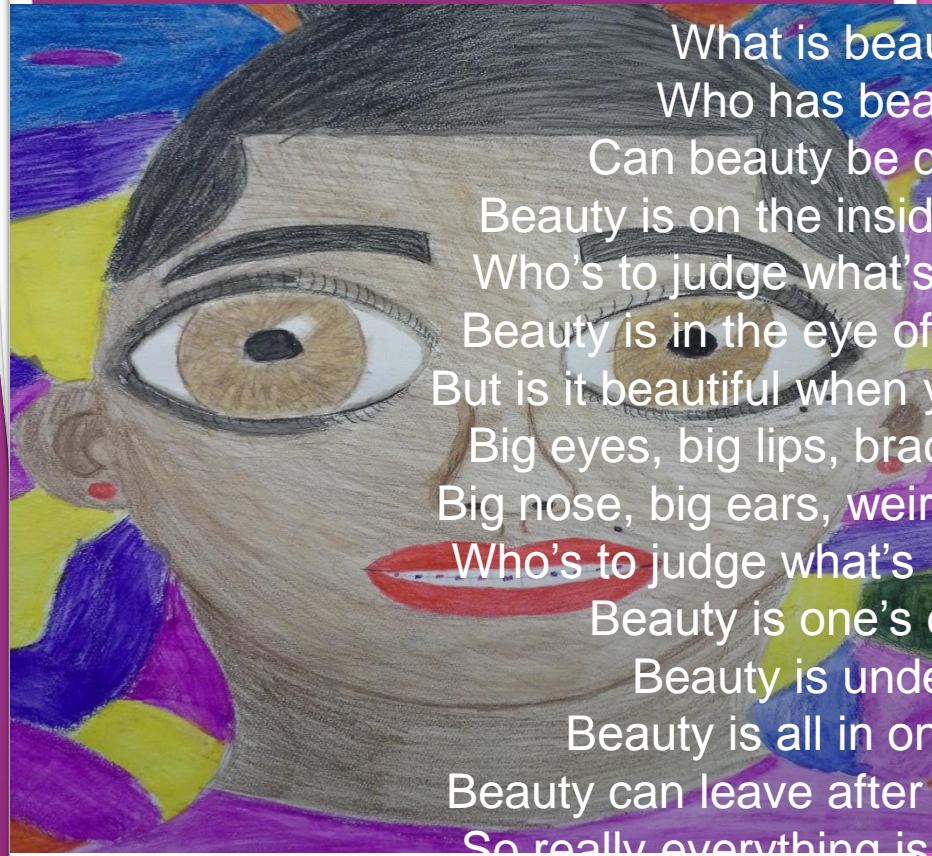

The planning of my BAP was a long process since I had to emphasize two characteristics it was pretty hard to make them look realistic. The first step was to learn how to draw a portrait portionally. Next I had to decide what was beautiful to me but not to others. Then I had to gather pictures of those things and decide which two things i will emphasize. Since I had experience with the eye I chose that and also I chose lips. The next step was to practice my picture in my sketchbook to get an idea of how my portrait will turn out. Then I had to get pictures of my two chracteristic to get a realistic visual of them.

Then I had to move to big paper and outline my portrait. The next and hardest step was to add water color. The hardest part was to blend the water color and make it look like a colored picture and not a coloring drawing. Then i had to think of a background that would go right with the picture. Then i had to color and blend the background so the background can look creative and realistic too. Overall i feel like my drawing was sucessful and I did my best although its not what i expected

What is beauty?

Who has beauty?

Can beauty be defined?

Beauty is on the inside in my mind

Who's to judge what's ugly or fine?

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

But is it beautiful when you look closer.

Big eyes, big lips, braces is it pretty

Big nose, big ears, weird hair is it witty

Who's to judge what's ugly or pretty?

Beauty is one's opinion

Beauty is undefined

Beauty is all in one's mind

Beauty can leave after a point of time

So really everything is just ugly fine